About the City of Welland... At the City of Welland, we're continuously rewriting our story. Not because we don't know where we're going, but because we are constantly reaching for new heights, engaging in new approaches, and pursuing what many believe to be unattainable or too ambitious. At the City of Welland, we're not satisfied with the status quo. And we're certainly not satisfied with doing things simply because that's how they were done in the past.

We expect our population to increase to over 80,000 in the next 20 years, and serving a diverse, growing community requires strategic thinkers, norm breakers, and passionate civil servants. In Niagara, Welland's growth leads every other municipality, and the City is becoming the region's heartbeat. So, we invite you to author your chapter and contribute to the overall body of work the City of Welland is creating. At the City of Welland, your ideas are nurtured, your input is invited, a healthy work-life balance is available, and most importantly, your voice will make a difference. So, if that sounds like something you want to be a part of, we want to hear from you. We're ready when you are.

About the position... Are you ready for a challenge? Are you experienced? Does the thought of managing, leading, and planning some of the City of Welland's most essential projects give you visions of grandeur? The Manager of Parks and Open Spaces, Operations and Development is a critical position on our team. This position focuses on all-things parks, trails, cemeteries, and forestry related including the maintenance, operation, and development of all park related assets. As a leader, we need you to train and motivate your team challenge themselves in each project in your portfolio. Your team's success will ultimately be yours. As an idea person, we need you to actively identify opportunities to implement new strategies and establish standards for your work, raising the bar in Niagara for park operations. So, think it over, view the full job description, and if you think what you have to offer will help the City of Welland become the premier community in Niagara to live, work, play, and invest, we want to hear from you.
